Re: State v. Terance Albert Falter
Case No.: D-07-CR-21-024929

Dear Custodian of Records,

It has come to our attention that you possess certain records of business activity that are relevant to this case. We intend to offer the records into evidence should the case come to trial.

Special rules permit us to introduce the documents into evidence without your presence at trial if certain procedures are complied with beforehand. We have taken the liberty of enclosing a certificate, which informs the Court that the business records are kept regularly in the course of your business and reflect regular business activity that occurs about the same time that the recording takes place. Please read the certificate thoroughly. If you agree with the certificate, please sign it and attach the appropriate documents.

Although we cannot guarantee that you will not be needed for trial, we thank you in advance for your anticipated cooperation, and request that you return the completed certification with attachments BY THE DUE DATE LISTED ON THE ATTACHED SUBPOENA.

If you have any questions please call the State's Attorney's Office at the location listed below and ask to speak to the prosecutor assigned to this case.

Sincerely,

/S/ Michael L. May
